

Whistles

Leading womenswear brand, Whistles, opened a new flagship store in Mayfair, London and W&Co was delighted to be chosen to supply a 3m high fabric face light box with even and bright LED illumination at only 40mm in depth.

University College London (UCL)

Colour changing LED illuminated feature walls were supplied and fitted into recesses in the entrance lobby of UCL's Christopher Ingold Building creating contemporary lighting features nearly 4m wide.

The London Bridge Experience

Large format light boxes were chosen by 'The London Bridge Experience' & 'London Tombs' to illuminate their brand name and promotional graphics at their box office under London Bridge.
